

United Way Tocqueville Society

In the spirit of Alexis de Tocqueville's admiration of philanthropy and effort toward its advancement, United Way of America created the United Way Tocqueville Society. Today, the Society is one of the world's most prestigious institutions for individuals who are passionate about improving peoples' lives and strengthening communities. Membership in the Society is granted to individuals who contribute at least $10,000 annually to United Way.

In great appreciation for their spirit of generosity, we thank the following Greater Mankato Area United Way Tocqueville Society members for inspiring hope and creating opportunities for a better tomorrow.

Ordre de Liberté ($25,000 - $49,999)

Lowell & Nadine Andreas Foundation

Lowell Andreas was a philanthropist and a long-time contributor to United Way. His commitment to the community, particularly his passion for youth and education, was reflected in his generosity as the Greater Mankato Area United Way's largest donor to date.

Lowell joined his wife Nadine when he passed away in 2009 at the age of 87, but their legacy will continue to impact lives in the greater Mankato area.

Membres de la Société ($10,000 - $24,999)

Dennis & Carole Dotson

Carole and Denny are longtime residents of Mankato and have enjoyed watching the community become a regional center. They have been supportive of community efforts that have evolved to handle the needs of an expanding population especially those that touch the lives of children.

Lyle & Kay Jacobson and Jones Page Jacobson Family Foundation

As former owners of Katolight Corporation, Lyle and Kay have been longtime supporters of United Way. They have a long history of conducting successful employee drives as well as giving personally, through their business, and through their family foundation.

In addition to supporting United Way, Lyle and Kay have a keen interest in early childhood development and are supporters of many organizations and educational institutions that enhance the quality of life in the Mankato area.

Glen & Becky Taylor

As a Board Member from 1976-1978 and Campaign Chair in 1980, Glen Taylor has been an avid supporter of our United Way. Members of the Heart Club since its inception in 1990, Glen & Becky Taylor joined the United Way Tocqueville Society in 2009.

In addition to supporting United Way, Glen & Becky have been involved in various organizations in the community and are generous supporters of several area non-profits.
